MESSAGE

Communication plays an important role in the technology transfer and adoption. The modern communication channels such as email, website, etc. facilitates faster dissemination of knowledge to the needy people. North East being bestowed with difficult terrain and poor communication facilities, ICTs play a vital role and KVK-South Tripura through launching its website "<http://www.kvksouthtripura.org.in>" taken a lead in Tripura state to reach the unreached.

The website provides information on KVK activities & its services, district profile, agriculture production & market information, important linkages with websites of ICAR, Zonal Project Directorate (Zone-III), district administration, KVK news, etc. for the benefit of farmers, extension functionaries, and agriculture development personnel. I am sure that it will be of great use to all those who are concerned with agriculture development in the state. I heartily congratulate Dr. A.K. Singh, Programme Coordinator and his team, Dr. N.P. Singh, Joint Director (ICAR, Tripura Centre) and Dr. S.V. Ngachan, Director (ICAR Research Complex for NEH Region) for this effort in launching this websites.

I wish all success to KVK-South Tripura.
